NO. 72

The Senate Still Struggling with the Tariff Bill.

The House Consumes Another Entire Day in Discussing the Merits of the Endless Sundry Civil Appropriation Bill.

Washington, July 28 .- In the Senate, the bill to pension all surviving officers and men of Powell's battalion of Missouri mounted volunteers, raised during the war with Mexico, was passed.

Senator Aldrich offered a resolution fixing the daily hour of meeting at 11 a. m., and some discussion followed. The resolution was agreed to with the under-

Mr. Gray moved to continue the consideration of the revenue marine bill. Mr. Frye said the friends of the revenue bill had occupied but an hour and a half upon it. All the rest of the time it was as evident to the Senate as if the proposed bill announced that the time had been occupied for the purpose of preventing a vote on the measure. That only indicated (what he believed in) that the necessity of the previous question in the Senate, or of some way to stop debate and to prevent a should it not be permitted to say so? The managers might put a few plots in drop-a-nickei-in-a-slot boxes for the benefit of his ilk.

The Tivoli people have revived "Orpheus and Eurydice" for this week, with Hattie Delaro-Barnes as Venus, I saw the piece some years ago, with some become well known in the comic opera world. Digby Bell the Jupiter, Ida Muelle the Cupid, poor Daisy Murdoch the Hebe, Laura Joyce-Bell the Diana. Harry Pepper the Orpheus, Geo. C. Bon-iface, Jr., the Styx, and Marie Vanoni the Eurydice. In a later production, Belle Urquahart played Venus, and Louis de Lange, Jupiter. Next week "The Vice Admiral," by Millocker, the composer of "The Beggar Student," will be put on at the Tivoli.

Charles E. Cook, the popular secretary of the Baldwin, takes a benefit at that theatre on Sunday night jointly with George E. Lask, of the Bush Street. Cook will soon join Fanny Davenport's forces, and Lask those of Joseph Brooks. I believe I am recorded as being against benefits in general, but here is an instance where I will gladly go and lay down my large round dollars, gn ministers have instructed the partly because Charlie Cook is a good triend of mine, partly because he is a Spanish gunboats that if the good fellow anyway, but more than all because he is a young fellow making his way, and making it by hard work, and in this benefit his well-wishers have the opportunity of giving him a friendly shove.

> I believe there are more peddlers to the square inch in San Francisco than in any other city in the Union. They fairly swarm here. The ordinary business man who does not possess an Argus to guard his sanctum probably has his wares for good money. They sell every-thing, from a shoe lace to custom-made shirts, from a two-bit fountain pen to an unabridged dictionary. But there are comparatively few fakirs on the street. Here in San Francisco they do not depend upon chance customers pening along, but beard the lion in his

> There will be a big celebration of Admission Day this year and the preparations are for an exceedingly elaborate jamboree. The Native Sons and the Pioneers have just made up, after a stormy period of dissension, and will now work in entire harmony, at least such is the announcement. But then, you know, there is harmony and harmony. They will have a rousing procession with live grizzlies and other fauna suitable to the ocassion.

San Francisco people are very fond of was examined in the condemnation suit processions, almost every Sunday witnessing one or more. Last Sunday the Sons of Herrmann had a long parade thro crowded streets and the Germans were out in force. A stranger arriving in the Chinaman was run over and fatally in- city that day might have thought the jured by the north-bound freight on sunday afternoon. He was removed to entirely Teutonic.
